NEW YORK, May 8, 185'. May 10-tfee Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court is the District of Columbia, sitting in Chancery.

Christopher Adams, complainant,

James Guthrie, Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November. A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government, agreeing to supply the government with five milsaid complainant, on or about the 12th day of Jan-uary. A. D 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum o our thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, or or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received fro the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dol'ars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further state- that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock as signed their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wal-lach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injuncti against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defend ants, or their representatives, and the defend ants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hun-dred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representa-tives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the pro cess of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the pre mises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defer appear in the court on or before the second Mon ay in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not passed by the court. Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill o complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second enday in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January 1855, being the first day of January, 1855, Test: JOHN A. SMITH, Clerk of the Circuit Court. WASHINGTON COUNTY, D. C.

Diary of Turkish and Greek Writers, by the Right Hon. the Earl of Carlisle, edited by C. C.
Felton, Greek Professor in Harvard University. The noble Earl is well and favorably known in this country, having travelled here while he bore the title of Lord Morpeth, and his work will be read with great interest by all who have devoted any attention to the mighty events which are now taking place in the Eastern World. The period embraced in his journal is one of deep significance, being at the very commencement of hos-tilities, and the persons introduced have since played eminent parts in this terrible historica tragedy. Professor Felton has added full and co pious notes to the American edition, and the work s beautifully illustrated. It will hereafter be regarded as a valuable, historical record of this in resting period.
